Contract

We hereby apply for exhibit space at the California Bankruptcy Forum (CBF) Annual Conference, May 21-23, 2010 at the Hyatt Regency Monterey. We agree to abide by the CBF rules and regulations as set forth in the Terms and Conditions attached hereto.

We understand that any additional requirements, such as electrical outlets, special signs, telephone lines, Internet, service of hotel maintenance staff, porters, drayage, etc., will incur charges from the hotel, which are payable by the exhibitor. Set-up day is Thursday, May 20, 2010. Agreement dated _____, between _____ (herein called "Exhibitor") and CBF. It is agreed between the parties that the Exhibitor shall pay the sum of $1700.00 as follows:

A deposit of $850 per booth space must accompany this form. Final confirmation of the space will be mailed to you and will include an invoice for the balance of the exhibit space charge. Each space is $1700 and includes one Conference Attendee Registration. Additional Conference Registrations may be purchased for $395 each if you register by April 1, 2010. After that date, the "late" registration fee of $495 applies. The Conference Registration includes several meals and social functions. Booth Spaces and Conference Registrations are payable 30 days after the date of final confirmation or 30 days prior to the Conference, whichever is earlier. Space or registrations received after March 1, 2010 require full payment with the reservation. Make checks payable to California Bankruptcy Forum. Mail application and payments to California Bankruptcy Forum, 954 La Mirada St., Laguna Beach, CA 92651.

Assignment of spaces is on a first come, first-served basis. CBF assignment of booths is final and shall constitute an acceptance of the Exhibitor's offer to occupy space. After assignment, space location may not be changed or transferred without the written consent of CBF.
